SECOND INDICTMENT HOLDS

Judge Sanborn Declines to Quash it and Trial of
"Picture" Man is on

Motion to quash the second indictment against E. M. Behr on a charge of using the United States mails to defraud was overruled by Judge Sanborn in United States court this morning and the trial started at once. United States District Attorney Wheeler is prosecuting for the government, while Attorney C. L. Hood is defending Behr.

The alleged "green goods" scheme of Behr was outlined by Mr. Wheeler and in the examination of witnesses, generally from the southern states, it was shown that Behr had led his victims to believe that counterfeit money was to be sent to them at a small cost. In some cases $1 bills were sent the "suckers" to lure them on.

In return for the money, oftentimes $5 or $10, the victim received steel engravings similar to the supplements in the Sunday Chicago papers. Behr sold these almost worthless pictures to the victims at 15 cents each, allowing a discount when taken in wholesale lots.

It is alleged by the government that Behr, a comely looking individual with a pair of sparkling, flint like brown eyes, has made $25,000 out of the game. From the testimony this morning as given by the score of witnesses, money must have rolled into his office.

The jury secured to try the case is: Oliver Bushby, Duncan Grant, Joseph Harvey, Charles Cone, K. K. Hagestad, George Dalton, Evan Jenkins, C. W. De Lap, L. H. Conger, James Johnson, Daniel Froilard and W. B. Cassels.

The testimony of the score of witnesses this morning related to their connections with Behr, the seeing of the advertisement in magazines and newspapers, correspondence for the purchase of "green goods," the sending of money and receipt of pictures. Many of the witnesses gave the pictures away after they had been duped or attempted to sell them. Some were able to sell enough to recompense themselves for the purchase price while others, disgusted with their failure, allowed the pictures to remain at home and did nothing with them.

Those who testified against Behr are: J. A. Malone, George W. Castle, Elia Glass, David Martin, James Estep, Charles E. Dripps, George Draper, W. L. Albert, Aaron Colman, W. S. Tarkinton, J. P. Crittenden, S. L. Edwards, F. S. Young, H. B. Spence, A. F. Smith, W. A. Brousch, L. C. Loyd, Anthony Metosch, J. S. Jones, John Thayne.

Thayne is over 80 years old and was on the stand at 3 o'clock.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 4.—John D. Rockefeller in an interview says:

"If we limit opportunity we stop our national development.

"Will the individual strive, if he knows the hard won prize is to be snatched by the government?"

"The nation is too young to begin tearing it down; we must build it up."

300,000 FRY FOR
SEVENTH DISTRICT

Three hundred thousand fingerling brook and rainbow trout are to be distributed about the Seventh congressional district this fall by the United States fish commission. Congressman Esch received word today from R. S. Johnson, superintendent for the district, that the work would be started on Oct. 15 if possible.

Rod and gun clubs throughout the district made a complaint to Congressman Esch when it was announced that the delivery would not take place until 1907. Communication with Mr. Johnson revealed the fact that an error had been made at Washington and the distribution was planned for this fall.

The commission is anxious to secure the names of clubs wanting the fingerling trout. There are now about one hundred applications on hand and all will be filled. It is estimated that 300,000 trout will be needed, although the number may be increased to 500,000 if more applications are received.

The fish, about three inches long, will be fit for fishing and for food with about six months or a year's growth. This will make the fish distributed this fall capable of putting up a game battle next spring and summer during the open season.

DARKIE ADAMS IS
VENGEFUL INDEEDGets Warrants for Girls; Inspection of "Shadow-land" is Made

"Long John" Adams, convicted of assault and battery upon Mayme Cooper yesterday in county court, and arrested at the conclusion of the trial on a charge sworn out by Cora Wickes, a sister of Mayme Cooper, secured revenge by swearing out a warrant against both the colored girls. The case is being heard before Judge Brindley this afternoon with prospects of a long drawn out battle.

Adams was the first to take the stand in his own behalf in the prosecution against the girls. He told what he knew of the Cooper family in general.

That an organized investigation of the vice laden districts of La Crosse has been conducted during the latter part of September was shown in the testimony of B. S. Steadwell, president of the Northwestern Purity association, a witness for the state. In company with the Rev. Sidney Kendall, who was at the head of the movement a trip past the Cooper domicile was made. The Rev. Irish, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, accompanied the Rev. Kendall and Mr. Steadwell on one of the trips. Mr. Kendall is making a tour of the United States gathering statistics and his trip to La Crosse was for this purpose.

At 3 o'clock John Parks, captain of the police force, was testifying as to what he knew.

HAVANA, Oct. 4.—An American ex-roughrider named Harvey was among the disarmed insurgents camped at Pinar del Rio City. He says most of the insurgents' combats were between gamecocks, 10 per cent of the rebels carrying roosters tied to their saddles and having a fight at every halt. There was little warfare.

The disarmed rebels cheered the American commission.

FEW KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Oct. 4.—It appears certain at least sixty are dead in the Pocahontas mine in which the explosion occurred yesterday.

All the coffins in town have been ordered to the mine.

Fire makes the rescue of any survivors practically impossible.

William Ferguson and Charles McHenry, members of a rescue party, were killed.

The explosion occurred two miles and a half beneath the surface. It will be ten or twelve hours before the rescuers can work effectively.

Reports Exaggerated

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Oct. 4.—The explosion reports are greatly exaggerated. Almost the entire force escaped. It is known three are dead. The number of injured is unlearned.

SUPERB PENNSYLVANIA STATE
CAPITAL IS DEDICATED TODAY

President Roosevelt Attends Ceremonies at Harrisburg Today

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 4.—The president arrived at 11 o'clock and was received by the governor, Mayor Gross and the dedication committee. The crowds greeted him despite the rain.

The president sat in the pouring rain throughout the preliminary exercises and wiped the dripping water from his smiling face cheerfully. He spoke with rivulets running over his face into his shirt bosom.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 4.—In the presence of President Roosevelt and many other distinguished guests the new state capital—one of the most superb pieces of architecture, in conception and completion, ever reared on the American continent—was today dedicated and transferred with elaborate and appropriate ceremonies by the state commission to the people of Pennsylvania. The presence of throngs of visitors from every nook and corner of the state testified to the pride taken by the people in their new capital. And they have every reason to feel proud of the building. As a work of architectural and practical beauty the new state capital takes rank with the greatest monumental edifices of the Western Hemisphere.

In addition to the President and his party that accompanied him from Washington, today's celebration was participated in by the governors of several of the neighboring commonwealths, the members of the Pennsylvania general assembly, the state officials the United States congressmen from Pennsylvania, the judges of the supreme and superior courts, and notable writers, men of art and scientists. In all more than 15,000 invitations had been issued for the ceremonies.

Thousands of citizens this morning welcomed President Roosevelt to Harrisburg. The enthusiasm of the greeting was worthy of the Keystone State and the president of the republic.

President Roosevelt was profoundly impressed with the magnitude of the demonstration. He said as much in words and more in actions; for he made no effort to conceal his pleasure. From the time the special bearing the distinguished guest passed into the city shortly after 11 o'clock, until the president left York four later he received a continual ovation. His route from the station to the state capitol was through an ocean of human faces and the vast throng stretched out into the side streets for more than a block. From center to circumference the city was decorated in the national colors.

The ceremonies of the day were preceded by a parade of the Pennsylvania national guard, which was reviewed by President Roosevelt, Governor Pennypacker and other distinguished participants. Flanked on either side by a line of troops the presidential party was escorted to the speakers' stand. The stand was erected in Capitol park facing State street, and was red, white and blue bunting and decorated with flags of the state and nation. The president occupied the center of the stand as he reviewed the military pageant. The military consisted of a provisional brigade of three regiments chosen from the Pennsylvania National Guard. Congressman Marlin E. Olmstead was chief marshal of the procession, and Adjutant General Stewart commanded the military, with Col. William F. Richardson as chief aide. The music of the day was furnished by the First Regiment band of Philadelphia and the Commonwealth band of Harrisburg.

Everything being in readiness, at 11:30 o'clock, Governor Pennypacker arose and announced the beginning of the ceremonies. The invocation was delivered by a representative of the Society of Friends as a tribute to William Penn, the founder of the state. The silence which followed the prayer was broken by the strains of the national anthem. After it Architect Joseph Huston formally presented the building to ex-Governor Stone, president of the building commission. Governor Stone in turn presented the building to Governor Pennypacker, who accepted it as the representative of the people of Pennsylvania. With the conclusion of each address there was transferred the key to the building. The key is a mammoth affair of bronze and gold, seven inches long and weighing over a pound. It is highly ornate, the body shaped like a fluted column, and the handle formed of a wreath surrounding a keystone.

With the conclusion of these formalities President Roosevelt was introduced to the vast crowd that occupied the grandstand and overflowed the grounds and streets in front of the capitol. There was a tremendous cheering for the president when he rose to speak, the ovation lasting for several minutes. Finally he was permitted to begin his address, which was in the main, a tribute to the people of Pennsylvania, and eulogistic of the founders of the state. The exercises closed with a benediction, after which the rejoicing broke out again, the din being added to by a salute of cannon at the state arsenal and the playing of national airs by the massed bands.

After the literary program, the official party repaired to the executive building, where refreshments were served and an informal reception was held, the president and his party being the guests of Governor Pennypacker. The entire program was concluded before 3 o'clock, at which hour President Roosevelt departed for New York.

The Building.

The Pennsylvania state capitol building which was dedicated today, cost more than $5,000,000. The structure consists of a main building, with imposing facades and two wings equally impressive as to mural ornamentation and design. The building is 525 feet long, 254 feet in width, and covers a trifle more than two acres of ground. The height from the ground floor to the top of the allegorical figure surmounting the dome is 292 feet.

The three requisites for architectural perfection, form, color and proportion, mark every feature of the vast edifice and give balance and symmetry to the whole. The style of architecture is Roman Corinthian.

In the construction of the building 40,000 separate pieces of granite were used, weighing from one to thirty-five tons each. A total of more than 4,000,000 cubic feet of granite were used on the exterior of the building alone, or something more than 1100 carloads of that material.

But it is the interior furnishings and decorative features that the capitol surpasses almost every other public building on this continent. At the main entrance are the famous bronze doors, each leaf of which weighs a ton and is a masterpiece of the artist and foundryman. The rotunda is finished in white Vermont marble. A magnificent marble staircase, with elaborately wrought balustrades, rises from the center of the rotunda, and its purity and beauty are enhanced by the dull luster of bronze in tracery and massively wrought work in candelabra and hanging lanterns and the illuminating auxiliaries which everywhere abound.

The predominant colors in the massive dome are gold, cream and light blue, while a softness and warmth of color are added by the use of amber lights in concealed windows. From the great gallery running around the dome at the second floor, the main entrances to senate and house lead through elaborate and beautiful doorways, surmounted with sculptured figures. These two chambers present the most elaborate and artistic decoration to be found in the building outside the interior of the dome. Thousands of dollars were spent in the decoration of the ceilings alone. Six immense gilded bronze chandeliers are

THREATENED EPIDEMIC OF
RABIES ENDANGERS LIVESSYRIANS TO BUILD
ORIENTAL CHURCHSpecial Dispensation Granted
Rev. Salome by Bishop
Schwebach

Construction is to begin at once on "Our Lady of Lords" Syrian church on Mill street, near St. James. The edifice is to be entirely of Oriental design and will cost between $5,000 and $6,000. The denomination will be Greek Roman Catholic, and the church is built by special permission of Rt. Rev. Bishop James Schwebach, under the supervision of Rt. Rev. Philip Salome, a noted Greek priest, who is here at the present time.

The ground floor will be an open court, surrounded by living and other rooms. The basement will be a single auditorium of large proportions. The decorations and fittings will all be oriental, as will be the architecture.

On Sept. 10 a committee of Syrians were appointed and blessed by Bishop Schwebach. He has given to Rev. Salome the faculty of buying land and of building and equipping the church and has commissioned him priest of the congregation. Rev. Father Ambrose Murphy of the North side, will assist the committee and all moneys collected will be sent to him.

Rev. Salome in discussing the matter today called attention to the difference between the Turkish and American rule. In churches he built in Turkey, he was made to pay a certain sum—about $200—to the government for the permit. In America every assistance was given in religious work and money was donated for it.

The committee in charge is Abood Ferris, John Makool, Karam Abi Kair and Shookri Hoolwi. The presidents of the school, which will be conducted in connection are Morkos Addas and Fardel Askor. The presidents of the church are Joseph Fyett and John Ferris. The church secretary and treasurer are Abraham Addas and Charles Bonahoom.

Two Dogs Shot by Police Today

BITTEN BY SCHILLING DOG

Gunderson's Imported Bear
Dog Runs Streets and Bites Many Canines

Lives of citizens are endangered by an epidemic of rabies which threatens among the canine population of the city.

The police today shot an imported bear dog owned by Dr. Gunderson and a valuable shepherd dog owned by Egid Hackner, altar maker, which were afflicted with the disease.

Dr. Gunderson's dog, which was brought here from Norway, was bitten by the Great Dane owned by Charles Schilling, which went mad several days ago and bit its owner and his wife. The dog was tied up for some time, but released, it being believed that he was all right and that rabies was not the affliction of the Schilling dog. For the past couple of days, however, the Gunderson dog has been acting queerly and within that time attacked every dog he encountered. It is believed twenty dogs were bitten by the Gunderson animal, including Hackner's shepherd.

Officer Larry Duggan this morning went to Market street where the dog was at large and shot it, before it had bitten anyone.

A short time later Hackner's dog escaped to the street and ran about frightening pedestrians. Officer Duggan also shot the shepherd.

Dogs in the neighborhood of Market street are generally being tied up by scared owners, who fear their dogs, if they become affected with the disease may bite someone.

Before the Gunderson dog was shot, he was examined for the purpose of discovering the real disease and it was pronounced rabies.

It is feared by the police that if a score of dogs in the vicinity have been inoculated with the disease, there will be serious trouble when the affliction comes upon them.

Pillsbury's Vitos contains two full pounds of the "white heart of the wheat." When simply and quickly prepared, it makes 12 pounds of the most delicious food. The ordinary cooked food, 10 cents a package, usually contains about 7/8 of a pound. 12 pounds would cost $1.32. It is only a matter of simple arithmetic to prove the real economy of

CHARGES MADE BY DISPEP-TIC WON'T BE CONSIDERED

Judge Benjamin F. Bryant, chairman of the board of trustees of the Waupaca Soldiers' home, will leave tomorrow for Waupaca to preside at the regular October meeting of the board. The charges preferred against the management of the home by Captain A. C. Smith will not be considered.

"The board has investigated these charges again and again and found that they were groundless," said Mr. Bryant this morning. "The state board of control conducted an investigation a year ago and arrived at the same conclusion."

"Smith is a bright fellow but a disturber, harmless in his way. He continually keeps stirring up trouble, even though not a member of the home. The charges he makes always are about other people and merely heresay. I pinned him down at an examination once and he admitted that he had not been misused when an inmate of the home. He knew of no one else who had been abused, but desired to bring these foolish charges continually.

"The man has received better treatment from the board than any old soldier in the state. I believe that he is slightly demented and should be taken care of. Once the board thought of having him sent to the infirmary at Oshkosh, but did not do so. They may do it now, however."

"The only things to come up at the meeting are the usual routine matters, letting contracts for coal and meat supplies. The home is in good condition and I think, the best in the United States."

REPUBLICANS WILL OPEN HEADQUARTERS IN CITY

State Campaign and County Fight to be on in Full Blast Within a Few Days

Campaign headquarters for the republican party will be opened in La Crosse next week when the campaign may be considered to be on in full blast. All arrangements tending toward this end have been made by Attorney John E. McConnell, republican county chairman.

No place has been chosen for the headquarters, but this will be done early next week. The scarcity of vacant buildings has caused a delay in opening quarters until now.

"Headquarters for the republican party will be opened up early next week," said Mr. McConnell. "I am not certain of the date, but hope to be able to have things running smoothly by the first of the week.

"No arrangements have been made for speakers as yet, however. Several prominent men from about the state will deliver addresses here during the campaign. I have heard nothing from the state central committee and do not know whether they have started printing pamphlets and leaflets or not.

"I don't know in what building the headquarters will be placed, but hope to be able to decide early in the week. The plans have been made for an early opening and the committee hopes to be able to do so."

THE FIRST THRESHING ACCIDENT

The first threshing machine accident of the year in western Wisconsin and eastern Minnesota is reported in French Creek township, Minn., near Hokah. Emil Beuge was the victim. He was threshing on the farm of Michael Kellaher, on Silver Creek, with Maurice Waters when the accident happened.

One of the smaller belts came off and in trying to replace it while the machine was in operation Beuge's left arm was caught and drawn into the pulley, badly twisting it and breaking it at the elbow, the bones protruding through the flesh. It was thought at first the arm would have to be amputated and he was brought to town. Amputation was not deemed necessary and the fracture was reduced and the wound dressed, but it will take time to tell how serious the injury will prove.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

BURNS WILL BE ELECTED

One of the penalties of accepting a political nomination is having one's record picked to pieces. In a way this is fortunate, as it usually deters men of riotous habits from inviting the limelight by seeking political preferment. Men of intelligence do not court the publication of their careless deeds, and therefore it is seldom that notoriously bad persons assume the hazards of a political campaign. When they do, they are presumed to have weighed the consequences and to be ready to accept the results.

The leading office in the county is that of sheriff, and this year the democrats have nominated a man of whom it would be difficult to say anything damaging. Chris J. Burns is a big fellow, as big brained as he is big boned. If he has a trait of which complaint can be made, it is a laconic way of speaking. He is not effervescent in his conversation, and he has little time for those meaningless conventionalities of expression commonly known as "bullcon," or the "salve." He need not apologize for this, for under his vigorously gruff exterior there is the timber of the man and the kindness of fellowship. Once one breaks through the crust, one finds something worth digging for. Chris Burns does not make friends at a glance, but he never loses a friend once made.

This certain gruffness of manner excuses the only adverse criticism that can honestly be made of Mr. Burns, and already it is being worked overtime. He has all the qualities to make an excellent sheriff—physical strength, courage and intelligence. More than that, he has had a valuable experience, having served two years as undersheriff. When he ran as the democratic nominee for this office two years ago he polled about 500 more votes than his nearest party candidate, losing by sixty-one votes in a county that has a normal republican majority of 1,000. Then he was opposed by a man of strength and high standing whose long affiliation with the republican party was not open to question. This year, with a large element of the best republicans unalterably opposed to the republican candidate who is further handicapped by the support of the Cargill-Stras-Gelatt public utility newspapers, Mr. Burns' election seems among the certainties of the campaign. It should be certain. He is in every way qualified, while his opponent is in every way unqualified. He stayed at home and worked at his business while his party made him its unanimous choice; his opponent secured his nomination by one of the most extravagant circus campaigns ever witnessed in this county. Believing in the good sense and manhood of our citizenship, The Tribune predicts Mr. Burns' election by a handsome majority.

Yesterday The Tribune again demonstrated that it is the live newspaper of this community. The leading news event of the day was the unexpected plea of guilty entered by "Billy" Diehl, the sawdust and lumber swindler. The Tribune gave its readers the complete details of this story. No other newspaper in the city printed it until twelve hours after it appeared in these columns.

After La Crosse legislative representatives have spent fifteen years in futile efforts to get a normal school for La Crosse, Senator Tom Morris to whom it was left to finally accomplish the end must feel elated to that Boss Connor will not take it away from us, even though Mr. Morris did have the temerity to oppose the boss for state chairman.

Mr. Connor complains that he could not "find" Messrs. Morris, Miller and Keppel while they were in Madison attending the platform convention. Possibly he looked for them at the old Baensch headquarters.

The worst luck Harry Palmer has encountered is his acquisition of the support of Jim Stras and Rollie Gelatt.

We haven't heard of any of the "stupid hulks" resigning. Can it be that they are not going to accommodate the Cargill-Stras-Gelatt public utility crowd?

Wonder if Mr. Gelatt expects to depend on the "stupid hulks" to keep the La Crosse Water Power company out of the city?

The persistence of the board of trade in prying into the affairs of the plaintive and non-committal Rubber Mills company is praiseworthy. Helping that enterprise is like rescuing a suicide. It is disgruntled because the public don't do something, what it will not say. We have all seen a 4-year-old child spanked for antics of that sort.

How foolish of Bryan to have traveled around the world for presidential prestige when it can be had as the net result of a trip to Cuba.

A local jobber, after viewing the list of La Crosse contributors to the Stoddard tornado sufferers, and upon recalling the fact that the people of the devastated district are the hotbed of mail-orderdom, rises to inquire how much Sears-Roebuck and Montgomery Ward contributed to the fund.

PALMER'S STATEMENT OF EXPENSE SAYS NOMINATION COST BUT $364

Six candidates at the primary election filed expense accounts with Register of Deeds Streeter today, the last for the filing of the same if the requirements of the primary law are observed.

Following are the names of the candidates and the amount of money spent by each to be a candidate:

Russell D. Smith, clerk of court, $176.00
W. C. Peterman, county clerk, 14.50
Harry Palmer, sheriff, 364.00
Eugene Derr, sheriff, 101.75
J. J. Durland, assembly, 16.00
William Weimar, treasurer, 12.05

GRAND JURY INDICTS FIFTY-TWO

Fifty-two indictments were returned by the federal grand jury this morning after being in session for the last week. The jurors were excused after making their report.

The nature of the indictments is not given out. The arrest of E. M. Behr yesterday on a new indictment is the only one known.

The majority of the indictments are for violations of the mails and for selling liquor to Indians.

The petit jury also was excused for the term this morning after the jury was drawn for the Behr case.

JUST LIFE

Pipes

Last night we bought a brand new pipe.

For our stock of dreams was low; We've lit it up and smoked it hard—Don't seem to help us though.

It used to be in bygone days We'd write verse by the yard, But now no matter what the brand, Poetic thoughts come hard.

The pipe with which we seek to force Our fancies into rhyme, Is a beauty we could ne'er afford In the good old bygone time.

We mustered our best hunches From a plain old cob of corn, And a brand of poor tobacco That would better be unborn.

We figured it from that old pipe A hunch we could entice, The hunches should be better From a pipe of higher price.

Discouraged, we are forced to think If we would hold our job As poet, we had better hurry Back to our old cob.

The fact that a fresh young fellow at Harvard is the "little stick" is probably responsible for news agencies filling up their reports with a police court episode.

A Chicago court has enjoined the health department from confiscating rotten meat. Seems there's a law for everything.

It is not surprising that the rebels are disarming without remonstrance, with Taft and Funston on the ground.

Perhaps the rubber mills situation has been stretched a little.

And now Harry Muldoon would have another wrestling match.

Why can't La Crosse have an auditorium by popular subscription?

We feel inclined to recommend "Our New Minister" at the theater tomorrow night as the funniest show of a year.

BIRTH RATE EXCEEDS DEATH RATE

Is La Crosse healthy? Do the births exceed the deaths? Is race suicide prevalent? Health Commissioner Major after scrutinizing his quarterly report, sent to the state board of health at Madison today, answers the questions favoring the city. Strong affirmative answers are given to the first and second questions and an emphatic negative to the third.

A glance at the report for July, August and September, shows that there were 140 births in La Crosse and only 111 deaths in that time. The report follows:

RETURN FROM WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Swinrod have returned from an extended visit of about four weeks throughout the west. They stopped off for a few days at Butte, Mont., on a visit with relatives and friends and spent most of their time at Seattle, Wash., and at Portland, Ore., and also visited many places of interest in California.

On their return trip they visited Yellowstone park and the hot springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrington accompanied them. All report a very pleasant trip, but Mrs. Swinrod was taken ill a few days after her arrival here, no doubt on account of the change of climate.

FOLLOWS SHARKS AND GETS LOGS

Log pirates entered the lumber yards of George Phillips across from the Trow mill and selected about 12,000 feet of the best lumber and formed it into a raft in Black river.

They took the raft by way of back sloughs up into French slough and on the break of morning left it in some bushes a few blocks from Steve's place at West La Crosse. They had no doubt intended to take it further up the river the next morning and sell it to some of the farmers in the vicinity.

Mr. Phillips trailed them, however, and recovered his lumber. It is not known who the "sharks" were.

AUDITORIUM COMMITTEE IS NAMED

Adam Kroner, who acted as chairman of the last meeting of the board of trade in the absence of the president and vice president of the organization, today appointed the following committee to look into the matter of building an auditorium: William Doerflinger, George Burton, Henry Gund, Frank Hixon and Albert Platz.

The committee will be called together within a short time and steps will be taken to see by what means an auditorium of sufficient proportions can be constructed here. A building large enough to draw conventions of all character is needed and will probably be arranged for.

STUB IS MERELY FOR THE SOLID MAIL TRAIN

Agent Frank R. Hartwell of the C. & M. & St. P. road, has informed members of the board of trade that his company has no intention of running a "stub" line to its trains to the North side and ceasing to bring the whole trains to the South side. Train No. 58, to meet which a stub is run to the North side each evening, and to which an objection has been raised, is a solid mail train. Mr. Hartwell declares the road recently put on passenger coaches between this city and Milwaukee as an accommodation, and that this train never came to the South side. He says all other trains will come downtown as in the past, but that if too much complaint is made regarding the stub to the mail train, the company will likely take off the accommodation coaches and run only mail cars as in the past.

The Right Kind of a Girl. Let a girl be ever so graceful in the dance, let her be ever so elegant of walk across a drawing room, ever so right in conversation, she must possess some other qualities to convince the great average run of young men that she can be a manager of his home. Frugality, woman instincts of love for home, an eye to the best interests of her husband and the careful training of her children—these are the traits which make the good wife of today and which young men look for in the girls they meet, says Woman's Life. Men may sometimes give the impression that they do not care for common sense in their sweethearts, but there is nothing they so unfailingly demand of their wives.

The Salamander. Some housewives may not know what the salamander used in cooking is. It is a circular iron plate, to which is attached a long handle. When any article of food is to be browned the salamander is made red hot in the fire and then held over the article. An ordinary fire shovel may be used instead of a salamander, but it is not especially good for the shovel to be heated so intensely.

Couldn't Do It. "Now," said young Sapied grandly, "I never talk scandal." "No," murmured Miss D. Mure softly. "It would be so unbecoming, you know, as you always talk about yourself."

Scenery Didn't Count. "Were the places you visited attractive?" "Yes, indeed. They have the loveliest lot of souvenir postals that you ever saw."

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS.

John H. McGraw

John H. McGraw, a penniless Maine youth, who became governor of the state of Washington, was born in Penobscot county, Maine, Oct. 4, 1850. When he was 14 years old he left home and thereafter was compelled to rely entirely on his own exertions. In 1876 he landed in Seattle, which city he has continued ever since to make his home. He reached the city penniless, but succeeded in obtaining a position as clerk in a hotel. From this humble beginning he rose to a position among the foremost men of the Pacific northwest. After his first position as hotel clerk he became successively a policeman, sheriff, lawyer, bank president, placer miner and finally, in 1892, he was elected governor of his adopted state. Mr. McGraw is now president of the First National bank and also president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

MERGER OF FLOCKS CAUSE INVESTIGATION OF CHURCH

At Sparta a Baptist Clergyman Presides Over a Congregational Congregation Also

Because of a merger of the Congregational and Baptist churches of Sparta, with a Baptist minister presiding over two opposed flocks, the Wisconsin Baptist state convention which meets at Evansville, Wis., Oct. 8 to 11, will inquire into the details of the merger and conduct of the churches and also ask a detailed explanation from the Rev. F. W. W. Pugh.

When the Congregational church was left without a pastor, the congregation tendered the Rev. Pugh, a Baptist clergyman, a call. He clung to the immersion for baptism though a sprinkling was allowed in the candidates informed the pastor in time that another reverend might be called in. The difference in belief has caused an investigation to be held.

The agreement of the churches effected by the merger was for a union for two years. The church has been crowded with a mixed congregation, between 400 and 500 attending the services each Sunday. The Rev. Pugh will speak at the convention next week and make a detailed report of the merger in all probability.

The Rev. J. W. Hoag, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, will deliver the annual sermon at the convention. "Audacious Efficiency" is the title of the sermon. Several prominent speakers from about the state will address the convention.

The First Baptist church last night elected delegates to the convention. They are Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Boynton, J. F. Schriver, the Rev. J. W. Hoag, Mrs. Emma Law and H. L. Taylor.

N. R. R. at its different offices, nearly $40,000; Studebaker Bros., South Bend, Ind., between $6,000 and $10,000. ## S.S.S. CURES CANCEROUS ULCERS

Whenever a sore or ulcer is slow in healing, and shows signs of eating into the surrounding flesh, it is safe to say that the blood is infected with cancerous germs. Some old taint or poison that has lain dormant awaiting a favorable opportunity to assert itself has found an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body, and the place has become inflamed and festering, and a chronic ulcer is the result. When middle age is reached or passed, and the vital powers are naturally weaker, a hurt of any kind heals slowly, and often an insignificant scratch or bruise on warty growths, moles, pimples, etc., will begin to inflame and are soon large, eating ulcers. The cancerous germs are rooted in the blood, and while salves, plasters, lotions, etc., keep the surface clean, they are useless in affecting a cure. S.S.S. cures cancerous ulcers by going down into the blood and removing the germs and poisons which produce the trouble. It cleanses the circulation of all unhealthy matter, and when the cause is removed the sore heals permanently. S. S. S. enriches and strengthens the entire blood-supply, and being purely vegetable, it is a pleasant, safe remedy for young or old, and ulcers of every kind yield promptly to its curative properties. EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Oct. 4.—Pictures of Lincoln and Douglas are in demand by the board of education to determine which had the longer nose. The janitor of the high school building has replicas of the two noses, but is unable to tell to which statue each belongs. NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 4.—The students of Tulane university of New Orleans have agreed to abandon the old form of hazing and substitute what will amount to a mud bath for those of inferior strength. President B. B. Craighead put a taboo on hazing and suggested a tug of war contest. It has been decided to have a tug of war over a mud pond in historic Audubon park, facing the university. The boys will attempt to pull each other across the pond.

STEALS TO GIVE SISTER A WEDDING DOWRY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 4.—Louis Segenreich, a young Russian, stole $150 from a friend that his sister in Russia, who was to become a bride, might not be disgraced through lack of a proper dowry. Segenreich's mother wrote him that the marriage would not take place unless the bride could have a dowry. Segenreich sent $25, and then stole the bank book of Max Brier, his friend, and obtained the $150 Brier had on deposit. This he sent to Russia, and it is supposed the wedding took place. Segenreich was sent to the Green Bay reformatory for one year.

$20,637 IS LA CROSSE COUNTY'S SHARE TO SCHOOLS

La Crosse county must pay $20,637.14 as its share of the taxes for the common school fund of the state. This is at the rate of $2.1176 per capita while last year it was $2.012. The apportionment is based on the number of persons of school age, between 4 and 20.

The total fund to be raised by the state is $1,662,360, an increase of $106,012 over 1905.

The three members of the state board of assessment, Governor Davidson, Secretary of State Houser and State Treasurer Kempf are in favor of refunding a portion of the tax because of the large amount of funds on hand.

The meeting will wind up with a big banquet tomorrow night.

RESUME SCHOOL FOR OFFICERS

C. H. Rawlinson, captain of Company M, and Emil Schultz, captain of Company B, Wisconsin National Guard, have received letters from Adjutant General Boardman, announcing the resumption of the school for officers to the state militia that was established one year ago.

It is expected that the 203 officers of the guard will take the course this winter. This is sort of a correspondence school, the officers studying their text books at home and receiving questions by mail at intervals on the subjects studied. The school year ends with a general conference some time in March when written examinations will be held. The course of instruction will be that of the second term for garrison schools for the officers of the United States army. The Wisconsin National Guard is organized on the same system as the United States army, so far as the state laws will permit, and its officers take the same instruction, so far as possible, as that taken by the officers of the regular army.

BREWERY FIGHT IS ON AT WINONA

WINONA, Minn., Oct. 4.—There is a fight to the finish on between the local breweries and outside breweries for the control of the saloons in Winona. The three local breweries, the Park, Peter Bub and William Scheithaus, have entered into an agreement for mutual protection, and together they intend to shut out all other brewers from the Winona saloons. Their cause is helped by a resolution adopted some time ago by the city council to the effect that there shall be no more than forty-seven saloons in the city.

The plan is for the Winona brewers to wait until the license of a saloon expires and then make application for a license. The outside brewer also applies, but the city council grants the license to the home brewers and is then unable to grant the other because the limit has been reached.

A Minneapolis brewery was shut out of a saloon in this manner a week ago, and the same trick was turned on another saloon last night. The Minneapolis concern has six more saloons in the city, and unless something is done these will be lost within a year. It is said that the Milwaukee brewing interests here will be treated in the same manner, and before a year has ended the Winona brewers will be in complete control. The Winona Business Men's association is taking an active interest in the fight in favor of the home concerns.

LANPHER COATS

THERE are more fur-lined coats made in St. Paul than in any other city in America—probably more than all else put together. What does that mean? The highest priced fur designers and furriers—the top-notchers in their art—are at St. Paul. A man may be a good custom tailor but he may not be able to build a fur-lined coat that will have the right hang and keep it.

Our coats are designed and made from start to finish in our own factory—the largest in St. Paul—largest in America—they simply must be right in every part.

The shell—as we call the cloth part—is made by our own tailors in our factory. They are made of the finest selected Kerseys, Doeskins and Broadcloths, thoroughly shrunk. The fur lining is made by our most experienced furriers and the trimmings are all the very best. The coats fit properly and hang properly and wear until they become a part of yourself. Here is a practical coat for the business man. It looks rich, hangs well, is light weight and will wear years.

DIPPED MUSKRAT LINED Kersey Coat $85.00

with unclipped Otter collar and facings.

We make fur-lined coats costing as little as $30 and all the way up to $400 each. Over 100 different varieties in fur, cloth and linings.

We have in stock Men's Fur Coats at $16 up to $600 each. Every one a good coat; every coat appropriate for some use; well made without a single exception. If it's a LANPHER FUR it is made as well as if we made it for our own use; none are made better.

LANPHER FURS are sold by the leading dealer in every community. Write to us for the book "Judging Furs," and we will also send you the address of our nearest dealer.

ENTIRE POLICE FORCE IS INDICTED

STERLING, Ill., Oct. 4.—The entire police force of the village of Tampico was indicted by the Whiteside county grand jury, being charged with assault and battery.

The indictment is the result of the troubles in Tampico caused by Mayor H. A. Kemp's absence in Canada for four months, during which time no city business was transacted. On his return the temperance aldermen refused to attend a meeting of the council, whereupon Mayor Kemp ordered his police force to bring them in. The aldermen resisted and there was a fight. The next day the police and the mayor were arrested, charged with false imprisonment, and were bound over to the grand jury.

The mayor was not indicted. It is said that the police will plead guilty to the charges.

MOUND CITY HONORS PATRON SAINT

(Tribune Special Service.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 4.—Tribute was paid today to Saint Louis, the namesake of the Mississippi valley metropolis, when the Niehaus statue of the illustrious Frenchman was unveiled with impressive ceremonies. The statue is a gift to the city from the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company and occupies a conspicuous site in the exposition grounds in front of the art palace. The unveiling was preceded by a military pageant. President Francis was the principle speaker at the exercises and the unveiling ceremony was performed by the daughter of Mayor Wells. The statue stands over 42 feet high and is said to be the largest equestrian statue ever cast in the world.

(Tribune Special Service.)

VOAKUM, Texas, Oct. 4.—Public men, railroad industrial agents and other interested citizens were present here in considerable number today at the opening of the big industrial movement convention. Is it coffee? Is it tea? No! Seldom indeed do they use these evil drugs. They know that they destroy digestion—weaken the nerves—encourage insomnia. The vast majority of physicians prefer pure malt and hop beer at meals, such as

Gund's Peerless Beer

This superb beer has been brewed for over half a century from the best malting Barley and imported Bohemian Hops by the celebrated "Gund Natural Process." Physicians knowing its commanding superiority over all other American beers not only approve of it for their own table, but heartily recommend it to poorly nourished and convalescing patients. The testimony of the World's greatest physicians prove that beer is undoubtedly healthy—for example we print the following:

DR. WILLIS P. KING, of Kansas City, formerly President of the Missouri State Medical Society, speaks of beer as follows:

"Beer to persons of moderate health, where used in moderate quantities, does not only increase weight and strength of body, but has the influence of aiding the digestive apparatus to digest other things taken as food. For nearly 40 years I have prescribed our best beers, ordering three to four glasses a day, in a great variety of ailments and the RESULTS have been wonderfully beneficial."

GUND'S PEERLESS Bottled Beer is procurable at all first-class public resorts and found in the homes of those most discriminating. Telephone at once and have a case delivered today.

AT THE UNIQUE

The name Lincoln is a name to conjure with. No other name in American history is more dear to the American people. The little playlet "The Welcome Guest," at the Unique in which Lincoln is the principal character continues to pack the house to the doors. The scene takes place in Vandalia, Ill., when Lincoln was an obscure lawyer, but a noble, generous character, ever ready to help those in distress.

Stephen Fitzpatrick's portrayal of Lincoln and the excellent support he is receiving from the two LaHls and Genevieve Cecil are being favorably commented upon all over the city. Aside from its historical qualities "The Welcome Guest" is the dearest, brightest little play ever placed upon a stage in this city. The Unique theater is about to become the handsomest little theater in the northwest. The floor is to be placed on an incline so that people in the rear can see what is going on as well as those in front. A handsome new curtain is to be hung, besides numerous other improvements. The management will not stop at expense.

Aside from "The Welcome Guest," high class vaudeville and moving pictures will be features of the Unique this week.

contributed in some way, in wood, metal, marble, glass or other material to the beautiful perfection of the building, while artists and sculptors of world-wide repute have helped to make the massive pile what it is today. Thirty thousand dollars has been spent in the mural decorations, while $300,000 represents the cost of the sculptures.

The present building replaces the old capitol building which was destroyed by fire, Feb. 2, 1897. Probably the most striking feature of the whole building is the inscription encircling the dome in massive letters:

"There may be room for such a holy experiment. And my God will make it the seed of a nation that an example may be set up to the nations. That we may do the thing that is truly wise and just."

These are the words of William Penn, at once an inspiration and a prophecy, and eminently fitted to adorn one of the greatest architectural and artistic triumphs of America.

York to Greet Roosevelt.

YORK, Pa., Oct. 4.—Thousands of visitors from the surrounding country are in York this afternoon to take part in the greeting to President Roosevelt when he reaches here late this afternoon from Harrisburg. The president's party will be met at the station by Representative D. F. Lafean and other prominent citizens, and then, escorted by a troop of cavalry, will proceed to the fair grounds. The president will be driven around the race course, so that all present may see the chief executive. After delivering a brief address he will be taken to the home of Representative Lafean, whose guest he will be for the remainder of the day. Mayor McCall has proclaimed the day a public holiday, and the city is brightly decorated in honor of the distinguished visitor.

The carnival was a success in every way. It was decided to take up some new way of pushing progressive North La Crosse. At the next meeting a new name will be given the organization.

PLAN TO KEEP CIRCUSES OUT

Tonight the committees on health, ordinances and licenses other than liquor of the common council will consider the advisability of raising the circus license from $100 to $200 and also an ordinance prohibiting the use of milk tickets more than once.

Alderman H. J. Hirschheimer has called a meeting of the committees to take action. The old ordinance provided a license of $200 for circuses and succeeded in keeping many away.

Action Taken Later

The special rewiring committee met last night and had an informal talk. Action will be taken later.
